Aim of bill

This bill aims to ensure that a lawful citizen of Bozolandia is not marked as a terrorist, and to ensure that in the event of an unconstitutional marking, the persons responsible for marking the citizen as a terrorist shall receive rightful punishment.

Immediate action

Upon the passing of this bill, all attempts to mark a citizen of Bozolandia as a terrorist will require the signing of a Terrorism marking document (Furthermore referred to as “T1”). The T1 requires the following:

- a) Name of Proposed Terrorist.
- b) Name of Signer.
- c) Title of Signer.
- d) An in-depth list of all evidence against the Proposed Terrorist.
- e) A list of persons who supplied evidence.
- f) Signature from either the VP, or The President.

Once the T1 is filled it will be examined by a Founder who will determine if the T1 is constitutional, or unconstitutional. However, if the President deems necessary, the Proposed terrorist can still be transported to the offshore prison without the immediate signing of a T1, however a T1 must still be filled.

If the verdict is deemed CONSTITUTIONAL

If a Founder deems the T1 to be in bounds with the constitution, then the terrorist will be removed from the Bozolandia Residential system and will be held in an offshore prison, of which their sentence will be decided by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If the verdict is deemed UNCONSTITUTIONAL

If a Founder deems the T1 to be unconstitutional, the Signers will be taken into custody and will be questioned to ensure that there was no foul play. If foul play is found, the following will occur

- a) If the President is found guilty of foul play, he will be impeached, and the Vice President will assume power, unless he is found guilty in which place the President will be selected from the Bozolandia Election Management form.
- b) If the Vice President is found guilty, he will be impeached, and the COS (VP) will assume power, unless he is found guilty in which place the Vice President will be selected from the Bozolandia Election Management form.

The persons will then be charged for treason, and a sentence will be decided by a court of a competent jurisdiction.

. If the Proposed terrorist was not sent to an offshore prison, they will receive $5,000 BGD. However, if the Proposed terrorist was in an offshore prison, They will be transported back to Bozolandia and given a sum of $12,500 BGD.

If the Proposed terrorist is in an Off-shore location for more than a week, and a T1 has not been filled
